WELCOME TO EUROPAMUNDO'S BROCHURE 2023-24

Dear customers: Trade colleagues and travellers, We warmly welcome you to our new travel manual.

After more than two years of pandemic, after having lived through one of the hardest moments in our recent history, after having seen how borders were closed, how our freedom to travel and move was limited.

After all that, we are back, stronger than ever, with more ideas than ever and eager than ever to receive you and make your dreams come true.

Seeing the world is the most fantastic of dreams. Each of us, as dreamers, knows that it is perfectly normal to feel the place we have never been to, perhaps more than for other places we already know.

Hence to follow your dreams, we invite you to go further, beyond all seas, all borders, all countries, and all beliefs. We invite you to experience our trips, our buses, as the vehicle that serves you for much more than traveling; in our tours we get to know other cultures, to share a few days with people of different religions, other languages, and traditions.

This knowledge will set us free every day, it makes us better every day, it places in our minds the necessary respect for what is different to erase the intolerance that continues to write the pages of our present history.

Travel, dream, discover the fantastic world that we have prepared for you.

Thank you very much for trusting Europamundo Vacaciones.

WHY EUROPAMUNDO ?

International Tours

On our coaches you might meet travelers who come from different countries around the world. This will allow you, not only to travel and learn from the places visited on route, but also through meeting your companions with whom you visit these places.

Guides

An guide will accompany you throughout your tour. In the event that people speaking another language travel on the same tour, there may be a second guide to assist them. In many cities, in addition, local guides will expand and deepen the information given in the visits of some destinations.

Itineraries

In Europamundo we seek to include not only the most emblematic places but also the small towns and the most beautiful landscapes that will be a fundamental part of the route, thus betting on sustainability and avoiding overcrowding.

- Tours through several countries and focused on world-renowned landmarks. Recommended for people traveling for the first time to these destinations.
- Regional tours: Visiting in depth some region or country. Recommended for the most traveled passengers.

You can add to your tour by acquiring optional excursions directly from your website MY TRIP or the App.
