► Central Europe

Brno (Czech Republic)

We'll enjoy time in this city where medieval history blends with modern life. Discover its iconic cathedral and indulge in the vibrant café culture. A perfect destination for lovers of culture and architecture.

Rammelsberg Mines (Germany)

Admission to the museum is included. With over 1,000 years of history, these mines represent one of the largest mining deposits in the world.

Bad Sooden (Germany)

We'll explore this picturesque spa town nestled among the mountains. Beautifully preserved, it's renowned for its charming architecture and vibrant cultural scene.

Eisenach (Germany)

We'll visit this beautiful city, the birthplace of Johann S. Bach, and include admission to the Automobile Museum.

Wartburg Castle (Germany)

Admission is included to this enormous UNESCO World Heritage Site, where Martin Luther translated the New Testament into German.

NEW

► Dive into the captivating history of former East Germany, the GDR—a region largely undiscovered and rarely explored by tourists. It's the perfect destination for those seeking to understand Europe's recent history and this area's unique journey under a communist regime until reunification in 1990. Here, Soviet-era architecture blends seamlessly with medieval history and modern transformations, creating a fascinating tapestry of past and present. Our new itineraries offer exciting opportunities for an in-depth exploration of this remarkable region.

Barwald Dolny Historic Church (Poland)

We'll make a stop at this charming wooden church, an architectural gem set in the rural landscape of Poland, renowned for its historical significance and traditional beauty.

Gdansk (Poland)

A historic port city boasting remarkable architecture, such as Długa Street and the World War II Museum. A destination brimming with culture and charm.

Triberg Waterfalls (Black Forest)

Welcome to Germany's tallest waterfall! We'll enjoy the surrounding fir forests, encounter local wildlife, and admire the region's famous cuckoo clocks.

Malbork Castle (Poland)

We'll visit Malbork Castle, founded in 1274 and considered one of the largest castles in the world. Built of brick, it showcases the distinctive and unique style of the Teutonic Order.

Katowice (Polonia)

We'll stay in Katowice, the capital of Silesia, a beautiful city celebrated for its modernist architecture and vibrant cultural scene.

Village Museum Opole (Poland)

Admission to this open-air museum is included. It showcases traditional rural life through historic homes and workshops, offering an immersive experience of the local culture you won't want to miss.
